Happy Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti

Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated on 2nd October to mark the birth anniversary of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, famously known as Mahatma Gandhi. He was born on 2nd October, 1869 in Porbandar, Gujarat. A lawyer by profession, Gandhi quit law to adopt a nonviolent resistance to lead the successful campaign for India's independence from British Rule.

Fondly called Father of the Nation, Gandhi's birthday is known in India as Gandhi Jayanti. It is a national holiday in the country and is celebrated as the International Day of Nonviolence across the world. This day is marked by prayer services and tributes all over India.

Hon'ble Prime Minister, during his first address to the Nation from the ramparts of the Red Fort on 68th Independence Day, urged the people to keep their surroundings clean and green. Mahatma Gandhi Ji had cleanliness and sanitation closest to his heart and for him Cleanliness is next to Godliness. It will be a great tribute to Bapu on his 150th Birth Anniversary by accelerating the Youth led movement for Freedom from Filthiness across India.

Objectives

The broad objectives are as follows:-

- To disseminate information about life and works of Mahatma Gandhi among the youth.
- To make youth aware of cleanliness, sanitation, elimination of manual scavenging and promotion of ODF.
- Sensitize and mobilize support of local youth and villagers pertaining to prevention of pollution of river Ganga and measures for its conservation.
- Generate awareness and educate target audiences about the consequences and impact of polluted Ganga.
